

Fluke's Handheld Hands-on Measurement Workshop

Fluke Australia has announced open registration for there 2010 Handheld Hands-on Measurement Workshops in all the major cities across Brisbane, Melbourne, Canberra, Sydney and New Zealand.

The Fluke Hands-on workshop will show you how to troubleshoot faster, avoid downtime, save energy and diagnose envelope problems using the latest handheld measurement technology.

These workshops are ideal for professionals including, engineers, electricians, energy auditors, field service technicians, facilities maintenance supervisors, process technicians, and building professionals. So, if this is YOU, THEN SIGN UP!

Seminar topics include:

- Fundamentals of Industrial Measurements
- How to troubleshoot and diagnose using the latest Fluke Handheld Measurement tools
- How to reduce costs using the Fluke technology
- How to select the right tool for your application

Attendees will receive hands-on product demonstration from Fluke technical experts, and be able to consult with a Fluke Technical Consultant for their measurement needs on the following categories:

- Power Quality
- Thermal Imaging
- Scope Meters
- Process Tools

FREE T5 600 Valued at $199.00 ex GST

For $199.00 ex GST, you will not only receive a detailed understanding on these diagnostic analytical tool areas, every attendee will receive a free T5 6000 valued at $199.00 ex GST.

Sydney 1st June, 2010
Brisbane 17th June, 2010
Melbourne 29th July, 2010
Canberra 17th August, 2010

Sign up a friend
to receive a FREE
VoltAlert IAC-II

For additional information contact:
Ganesh Ganeshkumar:
e: Ganesh.ganeshkumar@fluke.com p: (02) 8850 3333

FLUKE

Fluke. Keeping your world up and running.